

Our household supports Indiana's No-Call List and strongly urge our government and its agencies to protect our rights to privacy within the home by blocking the Consumer Bankers Association from its petition. A sales call is a sales call - no matter who it's from, even if it's from a company that we already do business with. By being on the list that means we do not want ANY sales calls - at all. period. Thank you for your service and assistance.